Joint Tenancy with Right of Survivorship:

Initial Property held by two persons jointly, with equal rights to possession and enjoyment during their lives. Under the doctrine of survivorship, the entire estate, upon the death of one of the joint tenants, goes to the survivor without the need to probate the descendant's estate. This shall not apply to married couples involving a Non-Navajo spouse. NO PROBATE REQUIRED, HOMESITE GOES TO SURVIVING PERSON.

Tenancy in Common:

Initial Property held by two persons jointly, with equal rights to possession and enjoyment during their lives. However, unlike joint tenancy, when one co-tenant dies, the surviving co-tenant does not succeed to the decedent's interest. Rather, the decedent's fractional interest in the property must be probated. PROBATE REQUIRED, COURT WILL MAKE DECISION, ATTORNEY FEES INVOLVED.

Community Property:

Initial Any property that is acquired by husband or wife during a marriage that is not separate or gift property to either the husband or wife. Community property principles will govern the distribution of the marital property upon dissolution of marriage in a fair and just manner, and may govern distribution of property upon the death of one spouse in accordance with 9 N.N.C. § 205. PROBATE REQUIRED, COURT WILL MAKE DECISION, ATTORNEY FEES INVOLVED.

The above mentioned cotenancy has been explained to us. We acknowledge and understand the difference.
